

Privacy notice for students

You have a legal right to be informed about how our College uses any personal information that we hold about you. To comply with this, we provide a 'privacy notice' to you where we are processing your personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about you.

We, Kensington Academy of English, 31 Jewry Street, London, EC3N 2ET are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

Our data protection officer is Alexandra Raen (see 'Contact us' below).

The personal data we hold

You may find it helpful to refer to the ICO's definitions of 'personal data' and 'special categories of personal data' based on the General Data Protection Regulation.

We hold some personal information about you to make sure we can help you learn and look after you at our College.

For the same reasons, we get information about you from some other places too – like other colleges, schools, the local council and the government.

This information includes:

- Your contact details
- Your test results
- Your attendance records
- Your characteristics, like your ethnic background, aptitude test results or any special educational needs
- Any medical conditions you have, including physical or mental health
- Details of any behaviour issues or exclusions
- Photographs
- CCTV images

Why we use this data

We use this data to help run the College, including to:

- Get in touch with you and your parents when we need to
- Check how you're doing in exams and work out whether you or your teachers need any extra help
- Track how well the College as a whole is performing
- Look after your wellbeing

Our legal basis for using this data

You may wish to refer to the ICO's guidance on the lawful basis for processing.

We will only collect and use your information when the law allows us to. Most often, we will use your information where:

- We need to comply with the law
- We need to use it to carry out a task in the public interest (in order to provide you with an education)

Sometimes, we may also use your personal information where:

- You, or your parents/guardians/carers have given us permission to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your interests (or someone else's interest)

Where we have got permission to use your data, you or your parents/guardians/carers may withdraw this at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for permission, and explain how to go about withdrawing consent.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using your information overlap, and there may be several grounds which mean we can use your data.

Collecting this information

While in most cases you, or your parents/guardians/carers, must provide the personal information we need to collect, there are some occasions when you can choose whether or not to provide the data.

We will always tell you if it's optional. If you must provide the data, we will explain what might happen if you don't.

How we store this data

We will keep personal information about you while you are a student at our College. We may also keep it after you have left the College, where we are required to by law.

We have a record retention schedule/records management policy (available for viewing on our website) which sets out how long we must keep information about students.
